DO THEIR OWN MILKING.
Says the Northwest Is Falsely Advertised.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 20.—False advertisements, one said to divert immigrants into the northwest, were held responsible by several witnesses today before the federal industrial relations committee for the arrest that exists here.

"People come out here lured by advertisements thinking they are getting into a land of milk and honey," Isaac Sager, executive secretary of the Oregon Civic League, said. "And they find on arrival they must do their own milking and there is no honey," suggested Commissioner Garrison.

CHEER CARRANZA AS HE ENTERS CAPITAL

REBEL CHIEF MAKES A TRIUMPHANT ENTRY INTO MEXICO CITY.

Fully 150,000 People Crowded the Streets and Cheered the New President.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 20.—General Venustiano Carranza, supreme chief of the Mexican revolution, and from today provisional president of the republic, entered the capital at noon.

It is estimated that more than 150,000 people crowded the line of march of the new president and his followers, which extended from the village of Atzacotalpa to the national palace, six miles. There was no disorder as General Carranza and his staff passed through the cheering crowds, which showered them with flowers and confetti, and from which came cries of "long live Carranza; long live constitutional government."

The constitutional troops began their march in a long line the entire distance over which the victory was celebrated. The troops of the revolution stood and every foot and balcony held spectators.

Delivered the Keys.
It was near noon when General Carranza, mounted on a superb horse and accompanied by his staff and the generals of the northwest, the central and northeast divisions of the revolution, entered the city. Carranza, escorted by a squadron of cavalry and the Fourth Sonora battalion of infantry, on reaching the city limits the column was met by the mayor and the city council of the capital.

Along this avenue were grouped hundreds of school children each carrying a Mexican flag. As Carranza passed they sang a hymn written for the occasion, entitled "Union and Liberty."

When the procession reached the national palace, Carranza, flanked by the chief executive and the cabinet, the hands of a delegation of workmen dropped at that very spot on the ninth day of February, 1913, the date of the Huerta-Dias uprising.

Passing down the avenue San Francisco, the crowds gave the new president a continuous ovation. This avenue leads to the historic Plaza de la Constitucion, the cathedral and the national and municipal palaces forming its sides. Here an immense throng vociferously cheered General Carranza as he passed through the main entrance of the national palace.

A few moments after he entered, President Carranza appeared on the balcony under the liberty bell and addressed the crowd, promising a new era of real constitutional government. The troops then passed in review, a band of 200 pieces massed in the square meanwhile playing martial airs.

The day was a holiday and all places of business were closed.

Won Archery Championship.
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—The archery championship of the United States was won today by Dr. R. P. China Asks the U. S. to Act as Trustee

WOULD TRANSFER GERMAN TERRITORY TO CUSTODY
OF U. S.

Believe in This Way That Jay-anese German War Could Be Avoided.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Most significant of the day's developments in the European situation here was the inquiry of the Chinese government of the United States whether the latter would undertake to transfer to the territory of Kiaochow, China, the former German colony in the Pacific, to the United States in any way in the situation.

China's inquiry was understood to have been based on an acquaintance of Germany to such a plan, hoping thereby to avert a war with Japan. While officials were generally reluctant to express any opinion, it was generally believed the American government would not accept the proposal unless both Japan and Great Britain formally assented. President Wilson and Secretary Bryan thus far have scrupulously avoided involving the United States in any way in the situation.

China's endeavor to obtain the territory of Kiaochow and at the same time preserve neutral relations with Germany, Japan and Great Britain, were manifest in dispatches from Peking. In any event, the Chinese government has been making it clear that it is not prepared to accept the proposal unless both Japan and Great Britain formally assented.

Canadian Government Plans For a War Tax.

OTTAWA, Aug. 20.—In the house of commons today the premier, Sir Robert L. Borden, announced that the term of the governor general, the Duke of Connaught, which originally would have terminated October 22, had been indefinitely extended because of the war.

The finance minister, W. T. White, announced his budget proposals which are to make up the expected deficiency in the Dominion's revenue estimated by the $50,000,000 war appropriation, a decline in imports and expenditures and a Mexican flag.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—Every vegetable drug essential to the concoction of medicines can be produced in the United States in greater quantities and finer quality than abroad. This statement was made today by Professor E. L. Newcomb of the University of Minnesota before the convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists. The speaker declared development work in his state in the grafting of medicinal plants shows that every medicinal plant for which American druggists hitherto have been dependent upon European growers can be produced in the United States.

OPPOSE SHIP BUYING BILL

Some Opposition to the Newest Plan Has Developed That May Defeat Passage.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Emergency ship buying legislation advanced today when senate and house commerce committees voted favorable reports of the bill to create a bureau of war risk insurance in the treasury department to insure ships of American registry subject to the hazards of the European war.

Chairman Clarke of the senate committee will call the bill up for passage in the senate tomorrow and Representative Alexander, chairman of the house committee, plans to expedite its course on the other side of the capital. So far little opposition to the measure has developed. In reporting the bill to the house the committee said:

"This bill is introduced necessary by reason of the conditions arising from the state of warfare existing since the outbreak of hostilities in Europe. It is an emergency measure to continue in force only so long as the emergency exists."

May Be Opposed.

The government's plan to purchase and operate ships in the overseas trade for the restoration of commerce during the war is being formulated into a bill which will be expedited as early as possible by the committee.

POPE'S SISTER DIED OF GRIEF

STRICKEN AT HIS BEDSIDE,
SISTER ANNA DIED EARLY YESTERDAY.

PIUS' BODY LIES IN STATE

THOUSANDS VIEWED LATE
PONTIFF IN THE DEATH
CHAMBER YESTERDAY.

PREPARE FOR CONCLAVE

Already Making Plans to Elect a Successor to the Late Leader.

ROME, Aug. 20.—The body of Pope Pius X, who died this morning, has been laid out in state for thousands to view. The pontiff of his passing has been accompanied by the death of his sister Anna. Always she was at his bedside in times of sickness and she died yesterday morning when he breathed his last.

The sister was assisted from the death chamber and lay out in state. Dr. Amici attended her but, alarming symptoms developed from which she did not rally.

The day broke cloudy and heavy with threatening showers. It seemed as though a storm was brewing for the pope, who had been in the state of mind for some time.

Around the Vatican many gathered. The great doors were half closed and those who entered spoke in whispers. Within the Vatican preparations were in progress for the simple funeral ceremonies and for the holding of the conclave for the election of a new pope.

It is expected that the conclave will be held early in September, even though all the cardinals are not in Rome. The new pope will be the first pontiff elected without the vote previously accorded to the deceased pope. This was the first act of Pope Pius X, who was to suppress this privilege of cardinals, though he owed his own election to it.

The cardinals met at the Vatican this afternoon. All wore violet capes as a sign of mourning. Cardinals Della Volpe and Merry Del Val attended the pope's apartment to affix seals on the late pontiff's private papers and belongings.

The chamberlain took possession of the pope's room, which was renewed when Pope Leo died, the old chamberlain's ring having been lost at that time.

Cardinal Della Volpe installed himself in the Vatican, occupying the apartment of the late pope's secretary of state, who has returned to the Santa Maria house behind the Vatican, where Cardinal Rampolla lived and died.

The cardinals visited the death chamber where they viewed the body, which lay on a supine, later covered with a white cloth under a rich red canopy. The body was clothed in a white robe and red cape. Red silk gloves covered the hands, on the fingers of which glittered the rings of his office. A mitre of cloth of gold was on his head.

Face Was Changed.
The face of the late pontiff was startlingly waxen. In profile it was quite recognizable but changed.

All hands and after prayer some of the cardinals handed to the Santa Maria house behind the Vatican, where Cardinal Rampolla lived and died.

Thousands Wept.
From five to seven o'clock this evening the body lay in state in the throne room, to which all classes were admitted. A great crowd clad in black entered the throne room, reverently praying and many weeping. The solemnity was rendered more pronounced by the majesty of the hall, the ministerial uniforms of the guards and the dress of the court dignitaries.

The body will be exposed again tomorrow morning from seven to eight o'clock. It then will be taken to St. Peter for the people to view it.

Much interest centers in the successor of Pius X. There is a marked difference between the conclave after the death of Pope Leo and the one now to be held. Then the Sacred College was divided into two factions, one for and one against Cardinal Rampolla. Since Cardinal Rampolla's death there seem to be no factions and it is thought that for the first time in many years the cardinals will enter the conclave with entirely open minds.

Monsignor Turchi, secretary of the cardinal congregation, having been appointed a cardinal, will be replaced by Monsignor Boglietti, former bishop in Mexico, who thus will become the secretary of the conclave instead of Monsignor Rosa. This position is of great importance, as Monsignor Merry Del Val from that position became cardinal and papal secretary of state.

It is reported that the pope left nothing to his family, but shortly before.
